reconciliation and wholeness in a world that is all too often an unloving place.
Therefore, whether you are gay, straight, or in-between;
whatever your country of origin or ancestry;
whether you are a believer, a doubter or a seeker;
in Christ's love, we welcome you, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit we can work together to usher in God's Reign of justice, peace, and mercy.

From wherever you join us today, whether in-person or online, please know that the worship of God is enhanced because of your presence and participation ….

ORDER OF WORSHIP

November 1, 2026 Our faith is over 2000 years old; Our thinking is not. 11:00 a.m.

ALL SAINTS DAY

I'm not one to dwell on the past. I've had my share of heartbreaks, but I've always found that the best way to get through is to keep moving, keep creating, and keep loving. You don't ever stop loving someone just because they're gone.

~Dolly Parton (1946-2026)

GATHERING MUSIC

Dr. Greg Taylor, Parish Musician

CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP Find Us Faithful arr. Tom Fettke

Chancel Choir with Greg Taylor, piano; Seth Woods, percussion

CALL TO WORSHIP The Rev. Lisa LeSueur

One: We gather in the presence of the Holy One, who remembers every life and receives every tear.

All: We come carrying gratitude and grief, love and longing, memory and hope.

One: We remember the saints who have gone before us, not perfect people, but beloved people through whom grace entered the world.

All: Their love remains with us. Their witness calls us forward.

One: Blessed are those who mourn, for they will not be abandoned.

All: God draws near through sacred memory, through compassionate community, and through the love we offer one another.

One: Today we remember lives long and brief, names spoken and unspoken, those honored by the world and those known fully only to God.

All: No life is forgotten. No love is wasted. All are held in the heart of God.

One: Surrounded by this great communion of saints, let us continue their unfinished work of seeking justice, practicing mercy, and making peace.

All: With sorrow and gratitude, with courage and hope, let us worship God.

Please remain standing for the opening hymn.

HYMN For All the Saints

SHARING THE PEACE OF CHRIST The Rev. Melanie Marsh

One: No matter from where you are worshipping with us today; whether you are present here in this space or with us online; no matter the concerns, worries, or joys that you bring; no matter your background or social status; your race, culture, faith tradition, or sexual orientation, we offer to you the peace of Christ.
Peace be with you!

Many: And also with you.

If you are in the sanctuary, offer a wave, bow, hand over the heart, smile, or nod to others.
If you are gathered with others at home, share words of peace with one another.
If you are worshipping individually, know the peace of Christ is with you.
Email, text, or message your family and friends and share the peace with them.

SUNG INTERLUDE from Taizé

Bless the Lord, my soul and bless God's holy name;
Bless the Lord, my soul who leads me into life.

At this time, all children and youth through 12th grade wishing to attend Sunday School are invited to exit into the Fellowship Hall.
Childcare is available for children pre-K and under in the Education Wing.

THE SCRIPTURE LESSON Matthew 5:1-11

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. And he began to speak and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

Friends, listen. God is still speaking.
Thanks be to God!

We use the book Womanist Midrash: A Reintroduction to the Women of Joshua, Judges, Samuel and Kings by our 2025 Visiting Scholar, Rev. Wil Gafney, PhD. Gafney uses her own translations and offers midrashic interpretations of the biblical text rooted in the African American preaching and rabbinic traditions to tell the stories of a variety of female characters, many of whom are often overlooked and nameless. Contact Pastor Megan at MeganS@gablesucc.org for the Zoom link.

BIBLE AND BEER
With Theologian in Residence, Rev. Brandan Robertson
Wednesday, November 11 at 7:00 p.m. at Pastor Laurie's Home

The Gables UCC family is invited once again for a relaxed evening of conversation, community, and thoughtful engagement with scripture led by the Rev. Brandan Robertson, our Theologian in Residence. Over a beer, soft drink, or coffee, we'll look at a few biblical passages that are often misunderstood or taken out of context, especially in our public and political conversations. Together, we'll explore what these texts were actually saying in their own time—and what more careful, life-giving readings might offer us today. No Bible expertise required, just curiosity and a willingness to think together.

HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP

On the second Friday of each month, we gather in the Fellowship Hall for fun, fellowship, and food. This year, there will be line-dancing, manhunt, scavenger hunts, and of course, boxball. NEXT SUNDAY: ADULT SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Firm Foundation: Living Stones:

Honoring Our Past, Celebrating Our Present, Building God's Future

Sundays, November 1-15 at 9:45 a.m. in Havighorst Lounge and Zoom

Week Two: Celebrating our Present

In this session, we will celebrate the ways God is at work in and through our congregation today. We will reflect on the gifts, ministries, relationships, and opportunities that shape our life together, recognizing that each person is a "living stone" in the spiritual community God is building. Together, we will give thanks for our present ministry, consider the challenges and possibilities before us, and explore how God is calling us to participate faithfully in the life of the church today.

Week Three: Building God's Future

What kind of church is God calling us to become? In this session, we will look toward the future with faith, hope, and imagination. Building on the foundation laid by those who came before us and drawing on the gifts God has given us today, we will explore how our congregation can continue sharing the gospel, serving our neighbors, nurturing disciples, and welcoming future generations.

ALL-CHURCH BOOK CLUB

The Art of Gathering: How We Meet and Why It Matters by Priya Parker

Wednesday, November 18 at 7:00 p.m. at Pastor Laurie's Home

Led by Liz Stack

We invite the whole church family to join in reading and discussing this book by author and facilitator Priya Parker, rich with wisdom for how we come together and how we stay together, as a congregation, as families, as a community, and in our daily lives.

In The Art of Gathering. Parker explores why we gather and how to make our time together truly meaningful. For a church family, it's a beautiful reminder that every gathering be it worship, a meal, family reunion, friends getting together, can be intentional, welcoming, and transformative

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE MATCH

GABLES UCC joins more than 1,000 area nonprofit organizations to spread our message and encourage giving on Thursday, November 19. This year Gables UCC is raising funds to match the spectacular $400,000 grant the church just received from National Fund for Sacred Places. Donations through Give Miami Day will go toward finishing the historic preservation projects we've been working on during the Centennial Campaign – enabling Gables UCC to provide community programming without worrying about leaking roofs and deteriorating windows and doors. You can participate in Give Miami Day from Saturday, November 14 - Thursday, November 19. Go to the Give Miami Day website: givemiamiday.org any time between those dates to make a gift designated for Coral Gables Congregational UCC and the National Fund for Sacred Places Match.

Thank you for your generosity, which helps us seek justice, care for one another, and serve our community and wider world. Together, we put our faith into action.

VOLUNTEER ON THANKSGIVING MORNING

Spend Thanksgiving morning serving those in need. As always, we are partnering with Branches to make take-home traditional Thanksgiving meals for those in need around Miami.

STAY IN TOUCH

Once a week or so, Pastor Laurie emails a pastoral letter, Laurie's Lines, to all members and friends, filling them in on the week's events, any special concerns that have arisen, and general church business. If you would like to be included, contact Elena at ElenaK@gablesucc.org.

OUR CHURCH APP

For all Apple and Android users, get your official Gables UCC App by going to the App Store or Google Play and downloading it. It's free! And it will keep you up-to-date and connected with church information, special announcements, calendar, and the staff. Need help? Contact Elena Korallis, our Communications Coordinator, at ElenaK@gablesucc.org.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Weekly, the Called to Care Team receives prayer requests from church family and friends. Each Wednesday at 12:30 p.m., they gather in prayer over Zoom to lift up these prayer requests, to pray for the church, and for the needs of the world. If you have a prayer concern to be prayed over by Called to Care, you may text it to Pastor Laurie at 305.968.6482 or email Carol Fifield, the Called to Care coordinator at miamifife@gmail.com.

FOOD PANTRY COLLECTION

We are collecting non-perishable food for our food pantry. We rely on our church members, family, and friends to provide the needed donations for the many Miamians suffering with food insecurity. We have created an Amazon wish list to make donating even easier! You can shop online at gablesucc.org/pantry. If you prefer to shop in-person, please drop off donations at the church reception. Thank you for supporting our neighbors in need!

INQUIRING MINDS WANT TO KNOW

How do I become a member of the church?

If you don't want to check your mind at the church door...
If you know that God's love embraces all people, no matter who they are…
If you want religion with relevancy…
If you've wished for an open and embracing community of faith to nurture your spirit, grow your faith, and raise your children…
Then we warmly invite you to help us build the family of Gables UCC.

If you are interested in "inquiring" about Gables UCC and what it means to be a member of our family of faith, we invite you to attend our Inquirer's Gathering on Sunday, Nov. 8 at 12:15 p.m. in the Library. You will learn more about the church, what we value and believe, our history, and our denomination, the United Church of Christ. Who should attend an Inquirer's Gathering? The short answer—you! If you love coming to the church and you are not a member, please join us! For more information, please be in touch with Pastor Laurie.

CIVIL RIGHTS TOUR INFORMATION SESSION

An All-Church Civil Rights Pilgrimage through Georgia and Alabama
Sunday, March 21 – Friday, March 26

Gables UCC is planning a Civil Rights Tour this Spring to gain a deeper understanding of the historic and continued struggle for racial equality in the United States. It is during Holy Week, which in itself is meaningful as we stand in places where ordinary people of faith carried their own crosses for the sake of God's beloved community. We will arrive home in time to proclaim Easter together, having seen with our own eyes that death does not have the last word.

The week is also spring break for Miami-Dade County Public Schools, and we very much hope families will join us. This is a journey meant for every generation, from children to seniors, and it will be richer for having all of us along.

We will visit the Martin Luther King Jr. National Historical Park, the National Center for Civil and Human Rights, hear the moving story of Rosa Parks and the Montgomery bus boycott, walk across the Selma Bridge, pay homage at the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, and so much more. If you are interested and would like to be on the information list, please be in touch with Pastor Laurie at Laurieh@gablesucc.org.
